OUTCOMES

- Improved services for women, girls and children participating in Good Shepherd programs.

- 4 GS models of intervention in key program areas.

- 3 new policies and guidelines approved and implemented.

- 400+ sisters and partners increased their capacities in key program areas.

- 30+ Units of the Congregation implement new policies.

- 6+ Mission development offices consolidated.

VALUES

- Person-centred approach to development

- Inclusion

- Trust and respect

- Partnership and collaboration

- Transparency and accountability

INPUTS

- Central coordinator for capacity building;

- Local resources for research and trainings for capacity development;

- New communications and marketing resources;

- Additional staff for Program management, in Rome and in local MDOs;

- New IT system for M&E;

- New skills of GSIF staff in key thematic areas;

- Specialized legal advisors in Rome and in the country;

- From CLT and Units clear commitment to new governance;

- From GSIFPO and SC: collaboration to review and align policies & good practices; collaboration and sharing for research & advocacy; sharing of resources for capacity development plans;

- From Mother House: Collaboration on communication and marketing strategy.

OBJECTIVES

- Reduce poverty and hunger and create decent work for all

- Eliminate all forms of violence and discrimination against girls, women and children

- Protect the rights of migrants and refugees, especially women

VALUES

- Person-centred approach to development

- Inclusion

- Trust and respect

- Partnership and collaboration

- Transparency and accountability

OUTCOMES

- ENHANCED CAPACITY
  - Improved services for women, girls and children participating in Good Shepherd programs.
  - 4 GS models of intervention in key program areas.
  - 3 new policies and guidelines approved and implemented.
  - 400+ sisters and partners increased their capacities in key program areas.
  - 30+ Units of the Congregation implement new policies.
  - 6+ Mission development offices consolidated.

- OUTPUTS
  - Document, model and share good practices through Communities of Practices (CoPs) in key program areas.*
  - Map training needs in key program areas and design capacity development plans.
  - Develop and upgrade congregational policies on Child Protection, Protection of People in Vulnerable conditions and HR Management.
  - Develop training modules.
  - Strengthen the skills of GSIF partners in program and grants management.

- ACTIVITIES
  - Consolidate and expand fundraising capacity, engaging existing donors and new foundations and corporations.
  - Develop new fundraising strategies to build an individual donor base.
  - Promote solidarity initiatives within the GS network to co-fund development projects.

- STRATEGIC COOPERATION
  - Greater cooperation within and outside the Good Shepherd network for effective development and advocacy.

- Increased and diversified funding
  - Framework agreement GSS-GSIF
  - Local agreements GSS-GSIF
  - 2 local offices/legal branches of GSIF established

- GOAL/IMPACT

People affected by poverty, violence, gender-based discrimination and other violations of human dignity and human rights enjoy lasting and positive change in their lives.

- CONTRIBUTE TO

- Reduce poverty and hunger and create decent work for all

- Eliminate all forms of violence and discrimination against girls, women and children

- Protect the rights of migrants and refugees, especially women

- GSIF AREAS OF INTERVENTION

- CONGREGATION OF OUR LADY OF CHARITY

- GSIF AREAS OF INTERVENTION

- CONTRIBUTE TO

- People affected by poverty, violence, gender-based discrimination and other violations of human dignity and human rights enjoy lasting and positive change in their lives.

- GOAL/IMPACT

Reduce poverty and hunger and create decent work for all

Eliminate all forms of violence and discrimination against girls, women and children

Protect the rights of migrants and refugees, especially women

CONTRIBUTE TO

- Reducing poverty and hunger

- Creating decent work for all

- Eliminating all forms of violence and discrimination against girls, women and children

- Protecting the rights of migrants and refugees, especially women

VALUES

- Person-centred approach to development

- Inclusion

- Trust and respect

- Partnership and collaboration

- Transparency and accountability

INPUTS

- Central coordinator for capacity building;

- Local resources for research and trainings for capacity development;

- New communications and marketing resources;

- Additional staff for Program management, in Rome and in local MDOs;

- New IT system for M&E;

- New skills of GSIF staff in key thematic areas;

- Specialized legal advisors in Rome and in the country;

- From CLT and Units clear commitment to new governance;

- From GSIFPO and SC: collaboration to review and align policies & good practices; collaboration and sharing for research & advocacy; sharing of resources for capacity development plans;

- From Mother House: Collaboration on communication and marketing strategy.

ACTIVITIES

- ENHANCED CAPACITY
  - Improved services for women, girls and children participating in Good Shepherd programs.
  - 4 GS models of intervention in key program areas.
  - 3 new policies and guidelines approved and implemented.
  - 400+ sisters and partners increased their capacities in key program areas.
  - 30+ Units of the Congregation implement new policies.
  - 6+ Mission development offices consolidated.

- OUTPUTS
  - Document, model and share good practices through Communities of Practices (CoPs) in key program areas.*
  - Map training needs in key program areas and design capacity development plans.
  - Develop and upgrade congregational policies on Child Protection, Protection of People in Vulnerable conditions and HR Management.
  - Develop training modules.
  - Strengthen the skills of GSIF partners in program and grants management.

- STRATEGIC COOPERATION
  - Greater cooperation within and outside the Good Shepherd network for effective development and advocacy.

- Increased and diversified funding
  - Framework agreement GSS-GSIF
  - Local agreements GSS-GSIF
  - 2 local offices/legal branches of GSIF established

- GOAL/IMPACT

People affected by poverty, violence, gender-based discrimination and other violations of human dignity and human rights enjoy lasting and positive change in their lives.

- CONTRIBUTE TO

- Reduce poverty and hunger and create decent work for all

- Eliminate all forms of violence and discrimination against girls, women and children

- Protect the rights of migrants and refugees, especially women

VALUES

- Person-centred approach to development

- Inclusion

- Trust and respect

- Partnership and collaboration

- Transparency and accountability

INPUTS

- Central coordinator for capacity building;

- Local resources for research and trainings for capacity development;

- New communications and marketing resources;

- Additional staff for Program management, in Rome and in local MDOs;

- New IT system for M&E;

- New skills of GSIF staff in key thematic areas;

- Specialized legal advisors in Rome and in the country;

- From CLT and Units clear commitment to new governance;

- From GSIFPO and SC: collaboration to review and align policies & good practices; collaboration and sharing for research & advocacy; sharing of resources for capacity development plans;

- From Mother House: Collaboration on communication and marketing strategy.

VALUES

- Person-centred approach to development

- Inclusion

- Trust and respect

- Partnership and collaboration

- Transparency and accountability

INPUTS

- Central coordinator for capacity building;

- Local resources for research and trainings for capacity development;

- New communications and marketing resources;

- Additional staff for Program management, in Rome and in local MDOs;

- New IT system for M&E;

- New skills of GSIF staff in key thematic areas;

- Specialized legal advisors in Rome and in the country;

- From CLT and Units clear commitment to new governance;

- From GSIFPO and SC: collaboration to review and align policies & good practices; collaboration and sharing for research & advocacy; sharing of resources for capacity development plans;

- From Mother House: Collaboration on communication and marketing strategy.